

Getting to the Porch of Slabsides

Slabsides is located in West Park, New York, on the Hudson River eighty miles north of New York City, and ten miles south of Kingston.

From Route 9-W at West Park, turn west onto Floyd Ackert Road (between Marcel's restaurant and the Post Office), cross the railroad tracks, and follow Floyd Ackert Road about 1/2 mile to the foot of Burroughs Drive.

Park here and walk up the hill to Slabsides or drive up the hill and park at the green gate on the right, walk through the gate and up the gravel road to Slabsides.
