

<http://www.shopmcgraw-hill.com>

Welcome to <http://www.shopmcgraw-hill.com>, McGraw-Hill's online store for college students. Find your textbooks and course materials here. Your professor has selected a customized digital product or package just for your class. In order to access the online content, you will need to purchase an access code. The entire process is as simple as ordering from any online retail site, with one exception...

Cut and paste or re-type the URL exactly as it appears below:

http://www.mhprofessional.com/mhhe_product.php?isbn=0077484967&cat=108

The direct link is very important because the specialized product will not appear in search results on <http://www.shopmcgraw-hill.com>. Once you add the product to your shopping cart, you'll need to establish an account and then use a valid credit card to make the purchase. Your access code will be immediately available, along with instructions on how and where to use it. Step-by-step instructions with screenshots are available on the following pages.

FAQs

Answers to frequently asked questions, aka FAQs, can be found on our retail website. In the FAQs, you will find some very helpful information about the purchase process, as well as contact information for Customer Service. Clearly, the Q&A for "How can I find the books I want quickly and easily?" doesn't apply in this case, but the remaining FAQs may have just the answers you seek.

Overview
This edition of Biology, has been packaged with ConnectPlus and Tegrity 2.0 - prepared for City College - New York, continues the evolution of Raven & Johnson's Biology. The text maintains the clear, accessible, and engaging writing style of past editions with the solid framework of pedagogy that highlights an emphasis on evolution and scientific inquiry that have made this a leading textbook for students majoring in biology. This emphasis on the organizing power of evolution is combined with an integration of the importance of cellular, molecular biology and genomics to offer our readers a text that is student friendly and current.

Subject: "Thank you for your order!"

It contains your Order#, as well as your access code and instructions for using it. Within 24 hours, a 2nd email arrives accompanied by a PDF invoice:

From: "Invoices@mcgraw-hill.com"

Subject: "INVOICE_45919905001" (for example). It represents the credit card transaction, and DOES NOT include the access code.

If you think you didn't receive an access code please answer these questions:

"Did you receive a confirmation email?"

"Did you receive an email with an invoice?"

"Do you have a spam filter set on your email account that may have caught these messages?"

If you didn't receive either email message, please verify the purchase. Was your credit card charged?

Contacting Customer Service:

The best way to get support for your purchase is to contact McGraw-Hill Higher Education Customer Service. When you contact them, be prepared to provide any information you have – the more information you have, the better:
